GO CAMPING

Slater and Charlie
want to go camping.

The first thing to do
is pack for the trip.

They went up the mountain and they
went down the mountain.

They went up the mountain and they
went down the
mountain.

Slater helped Charlie...

...with the tent.

“Charlie, Charlie, we can play ball,” said
Slater.

“I will kick the ball
to you.”

Slater counted
two tails, “One,
two...”

...but one of the
tails belonged to somebody else.

Slater caught
a fish.

Slater listened to his echo, while Charlie enjoyed the view.

The night was filled with scary sounds.

Charlie said, “Don’t worry, the sounds are far, far away.”

CRUNCH!

Slater made a big
dive into a small
pond... a very small pond.

Taking a photo of Charlie would be nice.

Slater stepped back,
back, back.

They both decided it
was much more fun
camping in their own back yard.

THE END
