Danny Elfman, Ricki Rachtman Go On-Line at KROQ Weenie Roast

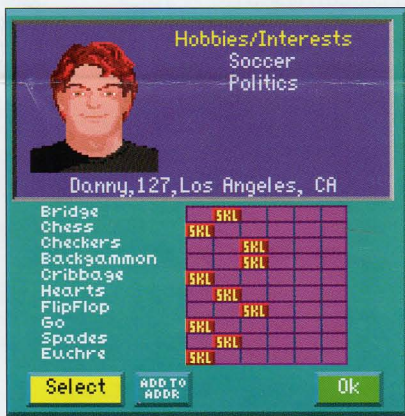

Most of our members think The ImagiNation Network is pretty cool. Those of you into the alternative music scene might be surprised to hear that some of the hottest bands out there agree with you.

Back in June, The ImagiNation Network was invited to be the official on-line entertainment service for the KROQ Weenie Roast at the Irvine Meadows Amphitheatre. More than 15,000 people were in attendance. We were set-up both back stage and in the festival area during the event.

INN Editor, Imaginings

You may have noticed some changes to Imaginings. We have listened to your comments and introduced some idea we hope will make Imaginings more useful. We appreciate your comments and look forward to hearing your reaction to these changes. Letters to the editor may be addressed to box 915.

I was wondering how to organize an INN outing. I have met quite a few people on-line that would like to get together from Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia and Mississippi. A few of us thought it would be nice to try to set a date for a picnic. Can you please let me know how to go about doing this?

INN get-togethers are always a wonderful way of meeting the great friends you have met on-line. It is also a great way of meeting all the potential friends in your area you have yet to meet.

Planning of these events is done by the members. I suggest writing to the INN News (box 930) with your plans. Place a note in the Get-Togethers Bulletin Board in the INN Help Room. Create a mailing list from the responses you receive. Then set up a planning committee and mail out the results to everyone interested.

For a picnic or pot-luck event, you will want to coordinate who brings what (paper plates, chips, drinks) as well as location. Check with the park and see if you can reserve an area that suits your needs.

When finished with the planning, write the INN News with all the details. If you have enough time (before August 25 for October events), I would be happy to include the event in Imaginings (box 915).

I don't receive my copy of Imaginings until very late in the month. It would be much more useful if I received it earlier. Can't you mail it earlier?

I am sorry you are having trouble getting your copy of Imaginings on time. Unfortunately, changes are your local post office is the cause of your frustration since they place little urgency on bulk mail and deliver it at their convenience.

We have been working with the postal service and recently have made changes we believe will improve delivery. To expedite delivery we currently are pre-sorting Imaginings for the post office and include the words dated material on the cover. We will continue to look into other alternatives to speed delivery.

Because of the four to six weeks required to produce Imaginings and mail it to your home, you may wish to refer to the on-line INN News and the Conference Schedule in Town Hall for up-to-date information.

About four or five months ago I received a demo of INN and a few free hours. Well, since I had been calling local boards for quite some time, I decided to try it. I was SHOCKED! I just couldn't believe that you could play games and talk to people all over the country. Well, because of how impressed I was, I thought that I would try it for a month. Since then, I have met some of the greatest people and made some friends for life. I love that whenever I call, I can always find someone to talk to and have fun. Many thanks, keep up the good work.

It is always a pleasure to receive letters of this type. You have expressed just what INN is trying to accomplish for our members, fun and friendships. Thanks for letting us know we are on the right path.

The way to reach a man's heart is through his stomach, but the saying goes just as well for women. If you wish to test that saying, you may find many heartfelt recipes on the Recipe Bulletin Board located in the Hearts Club in the Clubhouse.

We also have started a recipe club, called Food Fun, and are looking for new members to contribute recipes, questions, and conversation! Every week there is a new recipe category, like desserts - yummy and fattening. And, we take requests. The Food Fun and recipe club meets every Tuesday at 5 p.m., also in the Hearts Room.

We welcome new people and look forward to their contributions. It is a fun place just to come and visit, to leave a note for a friend, or ask questions and share recipes.

Please join in on discussions pertaining to food related software and kitchen appliances, as well.

The Fates of TWINION

NEVER WALK ALONE

Welcome to "The Fates of Twinion," the newest multi-player fantasy role-playing epic on The Imagination Network. Join real people in real time as you search for the secrets of a cursed Kingdom buried beneath a live volcano.

Everyone you meet could be a real live person, as literally thousands of people gather each night to experience the multi-player dungeon epic that Strategy Plus Magazine calls "champion among multi-player fantasy games...a game too big for just one player."

Team up with a Wizard from Wisconsin, a Knight from New Jersey or a Thief from DC. Build your character by completing quests, acquiring spells, and gaining experience as you explore the labyrinths. Talk to Elves, Trolls, Gnomes, Dwarves, Orcs and maybe even a few humans from all over America.

You'll meet the nicest people. Some of them may even let you live.

Take on enemies with a sophisticated combat system, develop a killer inventory, or form monstrous friendships with other adventurers. Explore a shadowy kingdom and be back in time for bed. It's all in an evening's play.

Order The Fates of Twinion and see for yourself what lurks around the next corner by calling 1-800-IMAGIN-1

Waiting Room Survival Guide

After about five minutes of silence, a message appeared. "I said I don't want to play poker. What part of 'no' didn't you understand?" For a moment I thought I had fallen asleep at the keyboard while my dog, Daisy, started inviting people to play games.

"Excuse me?" I replied. The member then explained he was talking to someone else, but still had me selected or highlighted. This brings up a few interesting points I would like to touch on for both new and seasoned members.

ImagiNation is one of few national networks allowing you to easily select certain people in a room for real-time chat. It's easy enough one might not need to write an article on it, but questions and comments arise often enough to merit an explanation.

Four "lands" currently make up ImagiNation: the Clubhouse, SierraLand, CasinoLand and MedievalLand. In each of these lands, there is a Waiting Room. Name tiles represent each person currently logged in to that particular room. If there are ten tiles, there are ten people available for chat or games.

Let's say you want to play a game. Before you enter a land, you select which games you are interested in playing. Choose any, all, or no game titles depending on your mood. This enables members to locate other members in the same game-playing mood.

You're in CasinoLand and want to play poker, a two or more person game. You'll need to find someone else to play. Click on "Go to," then "A Person" then "Match Game Interests." A list of all CasinoLand games appears. Click on "Poker" and you will see a list of members who currently want to play Poker. The "Select All" option will highlight their tiles. The "Look" option automatically clicks on "Look" for so you can file through the toons to see who best matches your character's personality type.

Looking for a quicker way to get your voice heard? While in the Waiting Room, you can click on "All" to make a broadcast. This sends a message to all available members in the Waiting Room. People who have icons by their names are not selected. Involved in a game or other activity, they are unavailable to play.

After sending the broadcast, you may get some responses, or you may not. It depends on what you have to say and how you say it. Some good reasons for making a broadcast would be: finding out if anyone wants to play anything, conversation topics or just saying hello. All we ask is you not abuse the function. It's there to help you interact, not make a buffoon of yourself.

Did you know you can talk to people while playing a game? By clicking on "Options" from within the game, then clicking on "List Room," you get a list of who's in the same room you are. To talk to them, click on their name and then start typing. The conversation will continue normally.

You can have as many conversations as you can handle. The conversations remain separate as long as you use the "Reply" button. If you click on "OK," instead, it clears the message. All selected people see what you subsequently type.

Interacting on ImagiNation is sort of like riding a bike – once you get the hang of it, you won't have to think about how to do it. If you just experiment and explore the system, you'll discover ways to interact you didn't know were there. You might even meet some new friends in the process. My dog Daisy has a date to play roulette with a nice young man from Cincinnati this coming Saturday.

home. Well, The ImagiNation Network is doing just that – inviting famous celebrities, authors and other experts to meet you on-line from the comfort of your easy chair!

Many of you recently met Betsy Schechter and Sally Braks from television's Inside Edition or Peter David, Star Trek and comic book author.

Celebrities, business experts and game designers, will be on-line for exciting conferences just for INN members! In the coming months you'll see even more special events on a regular basis designed to interest virtually everyone.

Coming in August

Scheduled for August is voluptuous "B" movie queen, Linnea Quigley (see photo on front page). Linnea has starred in the cult-classic films Nightmare on Elm Street IV, Night of the Living Dead, as well as television's Simon and Simon and MTV. You can catch her on at 6 p.m. in a Tournaments conference room.

World-famous astrologer, Alex Szogyi, has charted the future for such diverse luminaries as actors Candice Bergen and Judd Hirsh, polio vaccine developer Dr. Jonas Salk and chef James Beard. Find out why Alex is sought out by so many of the world's most interesting people on Friday, August 26 at 6 p.m. in a Tournaments conference room.

Stay tuned for more events and be sure to check the new Weekly Special Events Bulletin Board and the INNNews for the most current information.

included: Beck, Frente, Candlebox, Pavement, The Pretenders, The Violent Femmes and Boingo, to name a few. As the groups finished their sets, they joined ImagiNation on-line to talk to their fans both at the show in the festival area as well as INN members. Way cool, huh?

Those of you who were on-line that day may have had the special treat of talking to Danny Elfman, composer of the sound-tracks to such blockbuster movies as Batman and A Nightmare Before Christmas. He also composed the theme song to the hit TV show, The Simpsons. Besides composing abilities, Danny is the lead singer of Boingo (formerly Oingo Boingo) and took to the network like gray to bis-cuts. MTV video jockey Ricki Rachtman was also on-line to speak to fans in the audience and our members answer-
